

AIRA General Partnership Program Terms and Conditions

Acceptance of General Partners

- AIRA welcomes voting Members, non-Voting Members, and non-Members to apply to be AIRA General Partners. AIRA Membership does not automatically result in a Member being an AIRA General Partner and AIRA General Partnership does not automatically result in an AIRA General Partner being an AIRA Member. AIRA reserves the right to accept or reject applicants for the AIRA General Partnership Program as it sees fit.

Term of General Partnership

- General Partnership begins on October 1 of each year and ends on September 30 of each year.

Award of Benefits

- All AIRA General Partnership Program benefits are subject to change.

Transparency and full disclosure

- AIRA will document all activities supported General Partner by General Partner contributions to its members and the public as appropriate.

No Implied Endorsement

- AIRA will not endorse any commercial products or any General Partners, unless otherwise determined by the Board. Participation as an AIRA General Partner or acceptance of contributions does not imply AIRA approval of an AIRA General Partner's policies or endorsement of any product. General Partners may not claim AIRA endorsement of their products through participation in the AIRA General Partnership program.

No Direct Advocacy

- AIRA will not advocate for a particular issue solely because it has receive funding from a General Partner.

Use of Contributed Funds

- Contributions to AIRA that are not specifically restricted to a particular purpose by the donor may be used to support all activities of AIRA, in AIRA's sole discretion and without influence from its General Partners.

Avoidance of Conflict of Interest

- No AIRA staff member or voting Board member may receive direct financial benefit from AIRA General Partnership interactions, unless disclosed pursuant to AIRA's conflict of interest policy.

Objectivity and Control

- AIRA financial interactions must preserve or promote trust in AIRA and its Members. AIRA will remain objective regardless of any funding or General Partnership. Financial interactions do not permit an AIRA General Partner to influence the content of AIRA programs, products, services and related activities.
- AIRA maintains complete control over all AIRA programs, products, services and related activities. AIRA reserves the right to approve all materials relating to a General Partner. The AIRA General Partner logo may be used by specific General Partners in accordance with the table of AIRA General Partnership Program benefits that are a part of these AIRA General Partnership Terms and Conditions.

Consistency with Mission

- AIRA's mission, vision and values direct financial interaction with General Partners. AIRA will not accept support from General Partners where the General Partner has adopted policies or taken actions that do not support the basic principles of public health or AIRA's mission, vision and values.